REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Westminster Elementary is a school in Oconee County with an average of 450 students Pre-kindergarten through fifth grade. WES also has around 100 students on school choice, meaning that those students are zoned for a different elementary school within Oconee County but chose to come to Westminster Elementary. Westminster Elementary has a plethora of academic programs including the following: Gifted and Talented, 100 Book Challenge, Accelerated Reader, Achieve 3000, Reading Recovery, Literacy Lessons. Westminster Elementary also has a host of academic clubs and teams: Cardinal Honors Club, Student Council, Invention Convention Team, Math Madness Team, and Battle of the Books Team.

Westminster Elementary has had many opportunities to celebrate in the 2013-2014 school year. Westminster Elementary was fully accredited by AdvancEd, formerly known as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. WES exceeded the National Mean RIT on the MAP (Measures of Academic Progress) in Winter 2014 for math in kindergarten, first grade, third grade, and fourth grade. WES exceeded the National Mean RIT on the MAP for reading in third grade and fourth grade as well. WES received an “A” rating on the South Carolina ESEA rating as a result of the 2013 PASS (Palmetto Assessment for Standardized Scores).

Westminster Elementary hosted several fun and enriching activities this past school year. We had our 3rd Annual World Culture Day, where speaks from over 20 countries were represented. We also had our Winter Readerland Open House and accommodated over 500 people to our classrooms, book fair, chorus performance, and multitude of other winter activities within our school. Other events that drew community members to our school included Walk to School Day, PTO Family Movie Nights, WES 5K, Math and Science Night, and Chick-fil-a Nights.

Westminster Elementary teachers and staff strive daily to equip students to compete in a global economy when they graduate high school. WES wants all students to be college and career ready!
